Ordinary Time of the Year

The rhythm of the liturgical seasons reflects the rhythm of life — with its celebrations of anniversaries and its seasons of quiet growth and maturing.

Ordinary Time, meaning ordered or numbered time, is celebrated in two segments from the Monday following the Baptism of Our Lord up to Ash Wednesday; and from Pentecost Monday to the First Sunday of Advent. This makes it the largest season of the Liturgical Year.

In vestments usually green, the color of hope and growth, the Church counts the thirty-three or thirty-four Sundays of Ordinary Time, inviting her children to meditate upon the whole mystery of Christ—His life, miracles and teachings—in the light of His Resurrection.

If the faithful are to mature in the spiritual life and increase in faith, they must descend the great mountain peaks of Easter and Christmas in order to “pasture” in the vast verdant meadows "tempus per annum" or Ordinary Time.

Sunday by Sunday, the Pilgrim Church marks her journey through the tempus per annum as she pro-cesses through time toward eternity. The following is a prayer to grow with the Church Year:

Lord Jesus
I know that all human relations take time
If they are to grow and deepen.
This is also true of my relations with You,
The Father, Son, and Holy Spirit,
Which must grow over the course of my life.
However, this growth is not automatic;
Time alone means nothing
unless I add earnest efforts to it.
You have inspired Your Church to set aside special times when this growth can develop more intensely I the special seasons of the Church Year.
If I fail to move toward You during these times,
I waste precious opportunities and endanger
my spiritual life.
Help me to take them seriously and make a real
attempt to use them well,
so that I may grow into the person You want me
to be.
(New St. Joseph People’s Prayer Book)

After all the hype of the special times the Church gives us the Ordinary Times to relax, to rest and to grow
In our relationship with God and with one another.

STEWARDSHIP

Last Week’s Stewardship of $538.75 went to F.A.C.E.

This week’s Stewardship will go to Birthright of San Lorenzo.

Jesus Calls Us to Reconcile

Reconciliation means coming back together again, becoming friends again, after a time of separation. Reconciliation is also the name of the sacrament in which we confess our sins and receive forgiveness.

We want to help the children experience God’s forgiving love in the most positive way possible. We also want them to have a sense of unity—and recognize that we are all in need of forgiveness—through their celebration of the sacrament.

On January 12th the second grade children from our Parish School celebrated for the first time the Sacrament of Reconciliation.

For the closing song the children sang a beautiful song for us – Prayer of St. Francis. The Prayer of St. Francis of Assisi gives many examples of reconciliation. It expresses not only a prayer in word, but also a commitment to action.

Prayer of St. Francis

Lord, make me an instrument of your peace.
where there is hatred, let me sow love;
where there is injury, pardon;
where there is doubt, faith;
where there is despair, hope;
where there is darkness, light;
and where there is sadness, joy.

O Divine Master, grant that I many not so much seek to be consoled as to console;
to be understood as to understand,
to be loved as to love;
for it it is in giving that we receive,
in pardoning that we are pardoned,
and in dying that we receive eternal life.

May each of us experience God’s loving forgiveness and peace.

NEW LEAD-HOST AND LEAD-CUP

Serving at the table of the Eucharist is an honor for all of us who are Eucharistic ministers. We now invite you to become a Lead Host and Lead Cup minister in helping set up hosts and chalices for the liturgy before Sunday Mass. If you are interested in this ministry, please call me, Sr. Magdalena Duong, at 347-1287 to set up a schedule for training. Thank you so much for your dedicated service to our parish. We believe that your contributions serve as a catalyst for the love of God to burn in the hearts of those who attend Sunday Mass. We wish you a New Year filled with abundant love, joy, and happiness of the Holy Trinity, and with new enthusiasm to serve God and His people.

In Christ,
Sr. Magdalena Duong

YOU WILL SEE

Jesus’ cousin, John the Baptist, baptized people with water but told his followers that someone was coming who would baptize with the Holy Spirit. Today’s Gospel reading does not record any conversation between John and Jesus, but emphasizes that as John watches Jesus go by, he announces that this man is indeed the promised one, the Lamb of God. Andrew and another man set out to follow Jesus, who turns and asks what they are looking for. Their answer is a strange one: they want to know where he lives. Jesus simply replies, “Come, and you will see.” We are told they stay with him for the whole day. The next day, Andrew finds his brother, Simon, and tells him he has met the Messiah—the Anointed One—and takes Simon to meet Jesus. Like John, Jesus looks hard at Simon, taking the measure of the man, and in the light of what he perceives in him changes his name to Cephas—or as we more commonly know it, Peter (“the rock”). The two encounters seem very ordinary, yet they are life-changing. Jesus is not proclaiming a message, preaching to a crowd, or performing great miracles. Instead, he is simply walking past John, and when Andrew and his friend introduce themselves, offers them hospitality and companionship. When Jesus meets Peter, he does not ask probing questions about his family and his background or make solemn pronouncements. He just looks at the man, makes an assessment of his character, and accepts him as a friend. The simplicity of Jesus’ manner demonstrates his willingness to receive people “as they are” but also to call forth their potential. He does not offer lengthy explanations of who he is, but takes people to his home and lets them see for themselves.

Thank you to the parishioners who have already purchased tickets to our upcoming “Raise the Roof” events. This week we officially started our campaign with a $4000 donation from the Big Rick Foundation. On Wednesday morning we gathered as a school community and gave thanks and praise for the wonderful gift from the Bailey family. It is important that the students recognize that all of our gifts come from God and through His good grace we have been blessed by the work of the Bailey family and the Big Rick Foundation. Anthony Bailey graduated from 8th grade last year and beautifully played the role of Jesus during the Stations of the Cross. When he was in 6th grade he tragically lost his father “Big Rick” and his family began a foundation so that they could continue his legacy and work to provide support to various charities close to his heart. As they handed us the check they remarked that in fact they were thanking us for the wonderful support our community provided in their time of need. It was a grace-filled morning filled with grateful hearts.

With the Bailey’s contribution we are off and running. We are hoping to continue to “Raise the Roof” with all of our community events this winter and spring. I am greatly looking forward to celebrating our community with you! Don’t forget to buy your tickets to the Spaghetti Feed (January 28th) and Crab Feed (February 11th)! The tickets are on sale now!!!

Abundant Blessings,

Meghan Jorgensen
HABLA, SEÑOR, ESTAMOS ESCUCHANDO

En la primera lectura de hoy Dios llama repetidas veces en la noche a un niño dormido. Ni el niño Samuel, ni su maestro, Elí, entienden quién está llamando. Pero la persistencia de Dios los convence. Samuel ya está listo; no para hacer algo todavía, pero dispuestos a escuchar. “Habla Señor, tu siervo te escucha” (1 Samuel 3:10).

En el Evangelio, Jesús está afuera enseñando. Varias personas lo ven y comienzan a reunirse alrededor. Pronto se convierten en discípulos y, al igual que el joven Samuel, están listos, no para hacer algo todavía, pero dispuestos a escuchar.

“Habla”, dicen, “te escuchamos”.

La voz de Dios está siempre con nosotros, ya sea que estemos despiertos o dormidos. Se arremolina a nuestro alrededor como la niebla en una costa envolviéndonos, suavemente nos urge a despertar, a escuchar. Estar conscientes de la voz es lo primero; luego la voluntad de escuchar; y más luego, con el tiempo, la decisión de actuar, de vivir según la Palabra de Dios. Vamos a pedir hoy por la capacidad de mantener los oídos abiertos para que no se pierda la voz de Dios.

LO VERAS

En el Evangelio de hoy Juan el Bautista ve a Jesús venir hacia él y dice que Jesús es el Cordero de Dios prometido. Andrés y otro hombre siguen a Jesús quien les pregunta lo que andan buscando. La respuesta de ellos es extraña, pues dicen que quieren saber dónde él vive. Jesús responde: “Vengan a ver”. Al día siguiente Andrés lleva a su hermano Simón para que conozca al Mesías, el ungido. Jesús mira a fondo a Simón y por lo que puede percibir, le da el nuevo nombre de Pedro (“la roca”). Los dos encuentros son ordinarios y produjeron un cambio de vida. Jesús camina hacia Juan, y después le ofrece a Andrés y su amigo hospitalidad y compañía. Jesús conoce a Pedro, le echa una mirada, hace una valoración de su carácter y lo acepta como amigo. Esa sencillez demuestra su buena disposición para recibir a las personas “tal y como son”, pero también les hace ver sus propias capacidades. No ofrece explicaciones prolongadas acerca de quién es él, sino que lleva a las personas a su casa y les permite ver por sí mismas.

Apreciada Comunidad,

Con gusto les damos a conocer los nombres de las personas a quienes la suerte les favoreció en el pasado 11 y 12 de Diciembre del 2011. Las siguientes personas obtuvieron los premios de la rifa que organizamos para recaudar fondos para la festividad de Nuestra Señora de Guadalupe,
