St. Felicitas is a vibrant diverse Catholic Faith Community. We celebrate the Living Word of God, and the presence of Christ Jesus in the Holy Eucharist. We nurture the formation of Faith through Education & works of charity. In our various ministries we promote prayer, justice & peace. We welcome all to share in the Love of God.
A Hearty welcome to our Bishop

Saint Felicitas is honored to welcome Most Reverend Salvatore J. Cordileone, Bishop of the Diocese of Oakland. Bishop will be with us during this weekend, June 25th and 26th. He will be preaching at all the Holy Masses, hearing confessions, confirming our young adults and meeting with priests, sisters and all lay leaders of our parish and look at the entire parish facility. We thank him for his grace-filled visit, for the leadership of our diocese and pray that God continues to bless him and his ministry.

He is our leader and our shepherd. In the New Testament, Christ is depicted as sitting now at the right hand of the Father and presiding over the world and all creation as priest, prophet and king (Hebrews 1, 1-4). The bishop shares in this threefold office of Christ in a special way, serving the people entrusted to his care. The description of the bishop’s kingly office is found in the Second Vatican Council document, Christus Dominus, 16. It centers on the notion that the bishop is first and foremost, and in every respect, a servant to his people. All authority that he possesses is made manifest only through service to others.

The bishop carries not the scepter of the monarch, but the crozier, or crook-shaped staff, which is a symbol of his call to act as a “pastor,” which means “shepherd.” The good shepherd lives in the midst of his people; he does not rule over them. Like Christ, the Good Shepherd (John 10, 11-18), the bishop, as good shepherd, cares for each member of his flock as much as he cares for the flock as a whole. In order to be effective, he must know his sheep, and they must know him. He seeks connection and familiarity with their needs in the social circumstances in which they live, and, more generally, with the needs of the time. In this way, he will know the specific needs of his flock as a whole and of each member, so that he may consult more suitably the welfare of the faithful according to the condition of each one. He acts with the deep conviction that he is responsible to God for the souls in his care.

The bishop also seeks to establish, facilitate and nurture the assembly of shepherds under his supervision, namely priests, deacons and lay leaders, who help him to carry out this loving, self-sacrificing service—seen in the best of human parents—to all those souls in his care. In this way, he fulfills his role as shepherd and father, to “gather and mold the whole family of his flock, that everyone, conscious of his own duties, may live and work in the communion of love” (Christus Dominus, 16).

Our bishop is the good shepherd of our diocese, modeled after the Good Shepherd, Jesus Christ Himself, who knows his sheep, loves them as his own children, and cares for their every need.

Welcome Bishop Cordileone.

WELCOME, BISHOP CORDILEONE

The parishioners of St. Felicitas welcome our Bishop on his visit to the parish this weekend. The Bishop will be talking at all the Masses and presiding at the 10:30 am and 12:15 Masses. He is also administering the Sacrament of Confirmation on Saturday Evening to 100 of our Youth Ministry Students.

THE CRUCIAL DIFFERENCE

A man dreamed that he was having a conversation with God. He felt comfortable enough to ask God a question, “Lord, I’m curious. I wonder if it would be possible for you to show me what heaven and hell are like.” The Lord led the man to two doors. He opened one of the doors and the man looked inside. In the middle of the room was a large round table. In the middle of the table was a big pot of stew, which smelled so delicious it made the man’s mouth water. But the people sitting around the table were thin and sickly-looking. They seemed to be famished. They were holding spoons with very long handles that were strapped tightly to their arms and each one was dipping desperately into the pot of stew to take a spoonful, but the stew was spilling back into the pot because they could not bend their elbows. No matter how they tried they could not get the spoons back into their mouths. The man shuddered at the sight of all their misery and suffering. The Lord turned to him and said, “You have seen hell.” They then went to the next room and opened the door. It was exactly the same as the first one. There was another large round table with the big savory pot of stew in the middle, which made the man’s mouth water all over again. The people had exactly the same style of long-handled spoons strapped on their arms, but these people were well nourished and plump, laughing and talking happily together. The man was quite puzzled and said, “I don’t understand what’s going on. This is heaven?” “Yes indeed,” said God with a smile. “In this place the people have learned to feed one another.”

Back to School Drive

The St. Felicitas St. Vincent de Paul Conference knows children whose families need to spend their money on rent and utilities and cannot afford to buy their children the items necessary to do well in school or do their homework. The weekend of July 9th-10th, we ask you to take an apple from our “Learning Tree” and donate items to children so that they can have what it takes to succeed in school. They need pencils, paper, pens, crayons, pencil cases, backpacks for both home and school. Last year we distributed over 30 backpacks filled with supplies and the children were thrilled and excited to receive them. When you see “buy one-get one,” think about “giving one” too. The collection is July 16-17th at the church. Thank you in advance for your kindness. Please be generous, as you always are.

Dimas Resendez, President
St. Felicitas SVdP Conference
Hermanos y hermanas,

La celebración eucarística se prepara cada Domingo para nosotros y somos invitados al Banquete de Jesús. Unidos al sacerdote, nos congregamos como comunidad y como una gran familia de Dios compartimos el “regalo” trascendental que nos dio Jesús: Su Cuerpo y su Sangre, como alimento impercedero para nuestras vidas. Nos alimentamos con su Cuerpo y con su Palabra.

Al finalizar nuestra Eucaristía, somos enviados como portadores de la paz de Jesús, vamos a nuestros hogares a compartirla con nuestras familias, amigos y demás personas, en cualquier lugar a donde vayamos. Vamos a compartir el pan temporal y el Pan que nos sacia hasta la vida eterna.

Vamos a prolongar nuestra Eucaristía, compartiendo el amor del Señor con otros! Formemos en nuestros hogares un “altar especial” para Dios Padre; Dios Hijo y Dios Espíritu Santo. Vamos a extender nuestra ayuda sirviéndonos mutuamente, especialmente ayudando a los que más sufren. Recordemos que Jesús sufrió y murió por todos nosotros.

Además de ser un Domingo tan especial en que celebramos el Cuerpo y la Sangre de Cristo o “Corpus Christi” hoy es también un Domingo especial porque nos regocijamos con la presencia de nuestro Obispo, Excelentísimo Salvatore Cordileone. En la historia de nuestra Comunidad, es primera vez que un Obispo nos visita para celebrar con nosotros y presidir nuestra Eucaristía en Español. Vamos a orar por él y por nuestra Diócesis de Oakland. Al saludarlo agradecamosle su presencia pastoral entre nosotros. Nuestra Comunidad le expresa una cariñosa BIENVENIDA!!!

LECTURAS DE HOY
Primera lectura -- El hombre no vive solamente de pan, sino de toda palabra que sale de la boca de Dios (Deuteronomio 8:2-3, 14b-16a).
Salmo -- Glorifica al Señor, Jerusalén (Salmo 147 [146]).
Segunda lectura -- El pan es uno, y así nosotros, aunque somos muchos, formamos un solo cuerpo (1 Corintios 10:16-17).
Evangelio -- El que come mi carne y bebe mi sangre, tiene vida eterna (Juan 6:51-58).

UNA DIFERENCIA CRUCIAL

Un hombre soñó que conversaba con Dios. Sintió la confianza suficiente como para hacerle esta pregunta a Dios: “Señor, tengo una gran curiosidad por saber cómo es el cielo y el infierno, ¿me los podrías mostrar?” El Señor dirigió al hombre hacia dos puertas. Abrió una de ellas y el hombre miró adentro. En el centro de la habitación había una mesa redonda y grande, y en el medio de la mesa una gran olla de guisado que olía tan bien que al hombre se le hacía la boca agua. Pero las personas sentadas alrededor de la mesa lucían enfermas y mal nutridas. Parecían muertas de hambre. Tenían unas cucharas cuyos largos mangos estaban amarrados a sus brazos y todos trataban desesperadamente de poner un poco del guisado en la cuchara, pero era en vano pues al no poder doblar el codo el guisado caía de nuevo en la olla. Por mucho que trataban no podían llevarse una cucharada a la boca. El hombre se estremeció al ver tanta miseria y sufrimiento. El Señor le dijo: “Has visto el infierno”. Se dirigieron entonces a la próxima habitación y abrieron la puerta. Adentro era exactamente igual que el otro lugar. Otra mesa grande y redonda con una olla de sabroso guisado en el centro, y de nuevo al hombre se le hacía la boca agua. La gente tenía el mismo estilo de cuchara y también estaban amarradas por el largo mango a sus brazos, pero estas personas lucían bien nutridas y saludables, se reían y conversaban alegremente. Confundido del todo, el hombre dijo: “No entiendo lo que está pasando. ¿Es éste el cielo?” “Así es”, contestó Dios con una sonrisa. “Aquí las personas han aprendido a darse de comer mutuamente”.
