AMEN

Take a look around the walls of your church. Even if it’s only a year or two old, the word “Amen” has resounded off those walls countless times at the conclusion of the Eucharistic Prayer and as the faithful have come forward to receive the Body and Blood of Christ. Today’s feast is about those “Amens” offered in faith, offered in times of trouble or doubt, spoken in joy, spoken mindlessly, but all given to God in a multitude of ways. It is our very lives that lie behind our “Amens” and are touched by the presence of Christ, the presence we celebrate today. More importantly, we celebrate the love of Christ for us shown in the sacrifice on Calvary and that he continues to give to us in every celebration of the Eucharist. What can we do but rejoice in that great love, and then go out into the world and live that love in sacrificing for others?

GOD’S WORD TODAY

Today is a day for reminders. Each of the three scripture readings contains reminders of the fact that God nourishes us for our journey through life. Moses tells the people not to forget the Lord, who fed them with manna in the desert. Saint Paul reminds the Corinthians that the bread that is broken and the cup that is blessed constitute participation in the body and blood of Christ. And, at the heart of it all, today we hear the Lord Jesus announce that he is the living bread that came down from heaven. “Whoever eats this bread will live forever.” Let us pay close attention to the words and gestures of the Mass, and when it comes time for Communion, let us approach the Lord with humility of heart and offer a prayer of gratitude for this gift beyond measure.

INTERESTED IN KNOWING MORE ABOUT THE CATHOLIC FAITH?

Are you an adult who...

- is interested in being baptized Catholic?
- was baptized in another Christian tradition and would like to explore what being Catholic is all about?
- was baptized Catholic as a child, but has not celebrated the Sacraments of Eucharist and Confirmation?

If you answered “yes” to any of the above, please consider joining our ongoing inquiry sessions for a chance to ask questions, learn more about us and about the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults, the process by which adults join the Church. No commitment is required. For more information, call the parish office at: 510-351-5244.
As Sister Magdalena moves on in her ministry we here at St. Felicitas would like to show our appreciation for her 7 years with us.

A Reception will be held in our Gym on July 6th after the 10:30 a.m. Mass.

Please bring your favorite finger food and join in the celebration. This is our chance to say “Good-Bye” and thank her for everything she has done.

Sister, you will be missed.

El Cuerpo y la Sangre de Cristo

22 de junio de 2014

No sólo de pan vive el hombre, sino también de toda palabra que sale de la boca de Dios.
— Deuteronomio 8:3b

Amén

Mira alrededor de las paredes de tu iglesia. La palabra “Amén” ha resonado en sus paredes un número incontable de veces al concluir la Oración Eucarística y cuando los fieles se acercan a recibir el Cuerpo y la Sangre de Cristo. La fiesta de hoy es sobre esos “Amenes” ofrecidos en fe, en momentos de dificultad o duda, pronunciados con alegría, o distraídamente, pero todos entregados a Dios de alguna manera. Nuestra vida misma está detrás de esos “Amenes” que han sido afectados por la presencia de Cristo, la presencia que celebramos hoy. Más importante aún, celebramos el amor de Cristo que nos lo dio en su entrega total en el Calvario y que continúa dándonos en su autosacrificio de cada Eucaristía. ¿Podemos hacer otra cosa que no sea alegrarnos por ese gran amor, y luego salir al mundo a vivir ese amor en nuestro autosacrificio por otros?

LECTURAS DE HOY

Primera lectura — El hombre no vive solamente de pan
(Deuteronomio 8:2-3, 14b-16a).

Salmo — Glorifica al Señor, Jerusalén (Salmo 147 [146]).

Segunda lectura — El pan es uno, y así nosotros, aunque somos muchos, formamos un solo cuerpo
(1 Corintios 10:16-17).

Evangelio — El que come mi carne y bebe mi sangre, tiene vida eterna (Juan 6:51-58).

TRANSFORMACIÓN

El efecto de compartir el Cuerpo y la Sangre de Cristo es transformarnos en lo que recibimos.
— Papa san León Magno
