THANK YOU - ADIOS

As the scriptures say, “there is a time for everything.” Now it is a time for me to say Goodbye to Saint Felicitas that has been my home for the last seven years or so. It is a time to say thank you to the people of the parish who welcomed me and assisted me in my priestly ministry. “I was a stranger and you welcomed me.” I have learned much from the parish. Thank you.

In the first place I thank God and Our Blessed Mother Mary for all the graces I have received during my ministry at Saint Felicitas. I always believed that it is God who brought me to this community. I was just a parochial administrator and I considered Jesus as the Pastor of the parish. Wherever I serve that is what I want!

I have been appointed to Saint Augustine’s in Oakland. The community there is much smaller than here at Saint Felicitas. As I take up the leadership of this new parish please keep me in your prayers. My appointment is effective December 1, 2014.

Father Thomas Khue has been appointed in my place. I am truly happy that he is taking over the leadership of the parish; he is known by all. I believe, the transition will be much easier for everyone.

When I took over the leadership of the parish seven years ago there were some ruffled feathers. Some people were very apprehensive, angry, disappointed and unwelcoming. I do pray that Father Tom will not have to go through a similar experience! Every priest appointed to a parish is there to serve the community with his strengths and weaknesses. I believe that every person has gifts to offer, experiences to share, talents and energy at the disposal of the parish. If we welcome and cooperate with it the community grows and flourishes. That is my prayer for Saint Felicitas as I leave the parish. “The old order passes away!” “The Spirit makes all things new.”

I leave the parish in pretty good shape. Our spiritual and devotional life is vibrant, ministries and committees are strong, financial position is sound, Church attendance is steady, School is full, and Facilities are well maintained. I wish to thank some of the people who assisted me in all these. Norma and Pipo Pagdanganan, Bob Smythe (RIP), Gene Jaskot, Denise and Mel Abero, Joe and Clare Zipp, Karl Herzer (moved to LA), Mario Perez, Dimas Rezendez, Ed Walters, Bob Woodcock, and many others, all of whom I cannot list here.

Thanks to Mike Zamora and the parish pastoral council, Rich Hulsman and the finance council, Sheila Bickerton (Lectors), Tom Gilfether (Music Ministry) Debbie Parker (Eucharistic Ministers) Irene Hagebusch, facilities committee and everyone in different ministries and all the volunteers.

I thank my brother priests, Father Dinh Tran and Father Thomas Khue for all their support and help. Thanks also to the religious community of sisters for all their help and hard work. I thank all the staff members for their cooperation and help. I thank Deacon Tim Myers for his help and support.

And finally, I realize that none of us has here on earth a lasting city. One day we shall all be moving on, and not just to a new community or a new house. We will all one day be moving on to the full realization of the Kingdom of God in heaven. Our movings about here on earth are but a sign of that ultimate move.

Moving is usually accompanied by some stress - for everyone involved. We pray the Lord to make our final move as stress-free as possible - that we may willingly and joyfully go forward to our new home in our renewed community, where, with the Lord Jesus and all the saints of God, we shall dwell forever - all moving finished.

Living God’s Word
To say that Christ is king, that he reigns over our lives, is to admit to a world bigger than our own. In Christ’s realm, each is cared for simply because each is a part of the kingdom.

From our Principal
ST. FELICITAS SCHOOL

Last week, we had our first parent education night of the year on Wednesday. It was a special night planned with a local reading and writing expert Lori Oczkus. She has written many books and traveled all over the nation speaking to educators on how to bring up scores in reading and writing. One thing she reminded all of us about was the power of reading out loud to our children all the way up to 8th grade. Whether it is a picture book, chapter book, the bible, or the newspaper - reading out loud to our children models good reading fluency and our own love of reading. It introduces higher level vocabulary and strengthens their reading comprehension overall. As we expect our students to read more and more complex texts, parents can make sure their children are ready by reading out loud only 5 to 10 minutes a day! It’s that easy and makes a huge impact!

We had our Kindergarten information night on Wednesday night. Please contact the office if you are interested in Kindergarten and you missed the meeting. I am happy to give anyone a tour and go over important information about the school.

You are always in my prayers!
Abundant Blessings,
Meghan Jorgensen

Reclaiming Christ’s Mission Together

The Campaign committee would like to thank all the families who have contributed to date towards our goal of $648,000. As of November 18th, 45 families have pledged $91,700. This puts us at just 14% of our goal.

At this time, we are awaiting a response from the rest of you who have not pledged. Any amount you can give is appreciated. One of our goals is to have 100% participation. If you have not yet responded, please do so as soon as possible. You can place your pledge in the collection basket, drop it off at the office or send it directly to the diocese. We hope to hear from all of you soon.

Please keep in mind that our parish will receive 25% of all monies pledged and collected during the campaign.

Our campaign is based on every family making an equal sacrifice, not an equal gift. Please prayerfully consider what your family can do to support this campaign for both our parish and our diocese.

Guess Who’s coming to St. Felicitas?

St. Nicholas will be coming to visit the children in our parish on December 6th at the 4:30 pm Mass and on December 7th at the 9:00 and 10:30 am Masses. All the saints knew the joy of giving, but there is one saint who is the patron of giving gifts—St. Nicholas. He is the special patron of children and the poor. After his parents died, Nicholas gave all he had to the poor and needy. He loved Jesus very much and became a priest when he was nineteen years old. Later, he became the bishop of Myra. He showed his love for God by helping people. He was especially kind to poor people who had no one to help them.

In many parts of the world, children set their shoes outside the bedroom door on this night to be filled with treats. In the spirit of St. Nicholas, give an anonymous gift to someone who needs it—possibly an elderly neighbor or family member who is really feeling the budget crunch. Maybe a gift card or a box of candy with a card signed from “St. Nicholas” and spread the good cheer for which this saint has been known for.

“Estuve hambriento y me dieron de comer, sediento y me dieron de beber”.
— Mateo 25:35

Nuestro Señor Jesucristo, Rey del Universo

¿Está nuestra simpatía por los desvalidos escrita en nuestra mente? ¿Son las almas perdidas realmente nuestros parientes perdidos de tiempo atrás? ¿Es el remordimiento lo que nos mueve a contribuir con los bancos de alimentos y comedores públicos, o es una genuina compasión? Si creemos en la Encarnación, o sea, que Dios se hizo hombre, entonces esos instinto de visitar a los que están confinados y prisioneros en sus propios hogares, y de liberar a aquellas personas que se encuentran encerrados en la pobreza, no son otra cosa que inspiraciones divinas. Es la santidad que, engendrada en nuestros huesos, es incapaz de ser reprimida.

Alguien pasa hambre y nosotros contribuimos a un banco de alimento y prestamos un servicio voluntario en un comedor público. Alguien es un extranjero y acogemos a los inmigrantes en nuestro vecindario y buscamos maneras de hacerle sentir bien. Alguien está prisionera de su enfermedad o de su ancianidad, y nosotros le visitamos y atendemos. Y como sabemos que nuestros propios esfuerzos individuales parecen exiguos ante tanta necesidad, buscamos maneras de institucionalizar nuestro auxilio a través de normas y fondos gubernamentales. Y esos instintos nuestros no son ni más ni menos que inspiraciones divinas.

Vivamos la Palabra de Dios

Decir que Cristo es Rey y que reina en nuestra vida es admitir que existe un mundo que nos sobrepasa. En el ámbito de Cristo todos y cada uno somos cuidados sencillamente por ser parte del reino.
