Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

October 26, 2014

“You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind.”
— Matthew 22:37

All Saints Day

Who is a saint? Many people upon hearing this curious word "saint" cringe. To them, saints are one-dimensional, sometimes even vaguely creepy people who are uncomfortable to be around. They have one track minds and are other than human. They exist on a different plane where they have no real appreciation of how ordinary folk live. Saints are rigid creatures who don’t know the agonies and eccentricities of life. Those who feel this way about sainthood are likely to say, with a hint of disdain - and pride - "I’m NO saint!"

If you perceive sainthood as an undesirable attribute or think of saints as one-dimensional shadows of real human beings, you probably have never met cantankerous Saint Jerome or firebrand Saint John the Baptist, anxious and tormented Padre Pio or wry Saint Teresa, joke-cracking bishop Saint Laurence O’Toole or achingly grateful Saint Mary Magdalen, brainy and poetic Saint Thomas Aquinas or indomitable Saint Catherine of Siena, moody Saint Augustine, playful Saint Therese or mad Saint John of God. Perhaps you did not know that among the saints there are people who, rather than being meek and mild, are rather ferocious. Among the saints there are also great wits, addle-brained dreamers, foolish oafs, mischievous curmudgeons, radical crusaders, shy artists, and passionate poets. There are housewives and kings, tax agents and lawyers (yes, lawyers!), bakers and brigands.

All Souls Day

During the month of November the Church prays for all who in the purifying suffering of purgatory, await the day when they will join in with saints in heaven. The celebration of the Holy Mass which re-enacts the sacrifice of Calvary, has always been the principal means by which the Church fulfills the great commandment of charity toward the dead. We can also relive their sufferings through our prayers, suffrages, and penances. Even after death, links with our fellow travelers are not broken.

“All who die in God’s grace and friendship, but still imperfectly purified, are indeed assured of their eternal salvation; but after death they undergo purification, so as to achieve the holiness necessary to enter the joy of heaven.

The Church gives the name purgatory to this final purification of the elect, which is entirely different from the punishment of the damned” (Catechism of the Catholic Church, no.1030-1031)

Eternal Rest grant unto them (him/her), O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them (him/her).
May they (he/she) rest in peace. Amen.

What will we do with our portion of the campaign proceeds?

Support of Local Parish Projects

One of the major case elements of our Reclaiming Christ’s Mission Together Campaign is the Support of our Local Parish projects.

Every parish will have a financial goal equal to 110 percent of the offertory average for 2010, 2011 and 2012. Through the parish share component of the campaign, 25 percent of all funds generated up to the parish goal will be returned to the parish to be used for identified individual needs. Additionally, once a parish surpasses its goal, 50 percent of the funds raised over the goal will be returned. Through the parish share component, we hope to realize at least $12.7 million in funding for parish needs.

HIGHLIGHTS INCLUDE:

Portugal — Shrine of Our Lady of Fatima — join the Rosary and Candlelight processions
Spain — Santiago de Compostela — the Way of St. James
Spain — Santander
France — Lourdes — The Shrines and Blessing of the Sick in the legendary healing waters France — Paris — The Shrine of the Miraculous Medal of St. Catherine Laboure Shrine of St. Vincent de Paul, Notre Dame Cathedral and so much more!

EL AMOR ESTÁ EN LA ACCIÓN

¿Recibes la palabra de Dios con gozo, al igual que hicieron los tesalonicenses? Su fe se reflejó en sus acciones. Se convirtieron en ejemplo para otros creyentes. (I Tes.1:5-10)

La primera lectura nos dice que pongamos nuestra fe en acción. Este pasaje es parte de una larga lista de reglas que Dios impone a los israelitas para su observancia y para respetar su Ley. Dios nos juzgará por cómo nosotros tratamos a nuestros semejantes. Dios escuchará los llantos de todo aquel al que desatendemos o maltratamos, y vendrá en su defensa.  (Exodo 22:20-26)

En el Evangelio de hoy, los fariseos plantean la cuestión de la Ley de Dios. “¿Cuál es el mandamiento más importante de la Ley?” (Mateo 22:36). ¿Cómo es posible que él pueda elegir de entre todos los detallados mandamientos que los judíos observaban? ¡Sin duda que ofendería a alguien con su respuesta! Sin embargo, Jesús fue derecho al grano. El amar es el más grande de todos los mandamientos, el amor de Dios y el amor del prójimo. Todo lo demás se basa en esto.
