Easter

But the angel said to the women, "Do not be afraid; for I know that you seek Jesus who was crucified. He is not here; for he has risen, as he said. (Matt.25:5-6b)

Easter follows Holy Week, and is the third and final day of the Paschal Triduum, the three day period which began on the evening of Holy Thursday. The evening prayer of Easter Day officially ends the Triduum. The Triduum contains the heart of the Christian faith: Jesus' death and resurrection. Easter is not just a day, but an entire fifty day season, called Eastertide, marked by joyful festivities and liturgical fullness. You might hear "Christ is Risen!" and "Alleluia!" frequently during the Easter season, because we are joyfully celebrating Christ's bodily resurrection. The Feast of the Ascension falls within Easter season. The 50-day season of Easter runs up to, and includes, the Feast of Pentecost.

Of note, Western and Orthodox celebrations of Easter (Pascha) vary in certain ways. Usually Orthodox and Western Christians celebrate Easter on two different Sundays. The reason is that Orthodox churches still base their calculation of Easter's day on the Julian calendar, whereas Western churches follow the Gregorian calendar. In order to keep the date of Easter on a Sunday, the date changes yearly based on the Paschal full moon. The possible date range for Western Easter day is March 21st-April 25th. So what is the rule for finding the date of Easter? Put simply, Easter is observed on the first Sunday after the first full moon on or after the day of the vernal equinox. The vernal equinox is the beginning of astronomical spring. However, ecclesiastical rules are slightly more complicated than this formula.

The Risen Lord is the same person but completely different. This is hard for us to understand. How can the same person be totally different? Risen Lord can be here and at a thousand other places at the same time. He is no longer bound by the limitations of space and time. He can pass through closed doors and appear to anybody anywhere.

Exactly, this is what happens to us after our death. We are same but completely different. It is not easy to describe it in human words. But we experience a little of it during the season of Lent. At the end of our Lenten observances we are the same but different. We have changed our priorities in life, our attitudes and rise to a new Christian life as Jesus did at Easter.

Happy Easter. May the Risen Savior bless us with many wonderful graces.

NO CHILDREN’S LITURGY TODAY

THIS WEEK: Bishop’s Annual Appeal

Father Augustine will be away from April 21st to May 2nd.

First Holy Communion.

We would like to encourage family, friends and members of the parish community to join us in prayer for the children of our parish that will be celebrating the Sacrament of 1st Holy Communion on May 3rd and May 10th.

Today at the doors of the front of the church, there is a basket containing pictures of our 1st Communion students. We are asking our parishioners to take one of these pictures home and remember that child in your prayers. The child's name is on the card along with their picture.

We welcome you to send a card to the child. Please write the child's complete name on any cards that you send. Cards for our 1st Communion students can be dropped off at the Religious Education office or the Parish Office by May 1st and we will forward these to the children.

ST. FELICITAS SCHOOL

Thank you to all of those that supported our Eighth graders by attending the Stations of the Cross on Good Friday. We are so grateful to you for journeying the way of the cross with us and we hope that we were able to open your eyes to the amazing love of Jesus for all of us.

I hope that all of you have a wonderfully blessed Easter filled with God’s grace and conquering love.

_O Risen Lord, the way, the truth, and the life!_

_Make us faithful followers of the spirit of Your Resurrection._

_Grant that we may be inwardly renewed; dying to ourselves in order that You may live in us._

_May our lives serve as signs of the transforming power of Your love._

_Use us as Your instruments for the renewal of society, bringing Your life and love to all, and leading them to Your Church._

_Amen_

_Wishing you a Blessed Easter_
_Meghan Jorgensen_
