EMERGENCY NUMBER (510) 309-8097
(During non-office hours)
My Dear Parishioners,

Here are some scattered thoughts . . .

Love is the greatest of all spiritual gifts. Without it, we gain nothing. Receiving this greatest gift demands a response from us—faith and love for Jesus. “Love for love and life for life,” as Blessed Andrew Phu Yen said. This Sunday’s gospel is about Jesus’ rejection. What happened to Jesus on that day in Nazareth was to be repeated over and over again during his public ministry. Although he was the greatest prophet of all . . . The work of prophecy continued in every generation. We are invited to witness to Christ, not simply by words, but with our very lives. The mission of Christ points to ours which we receive at Baptism—to witness to the values Christ represents. God called us to this particular work but he has not promised easy success and popularity! This Jubilee Year of Mercy we are invited to focus on the Spiritual and Corporal works of mercy.

Love is the foundation to establish any kind of relationship.

Until next week, remember you are in my prayers,

Father Tom

Stewardship Report
Stewardship for January 24th of $433.50 went to the Congregation of Benedictine Sisters of Perpetual Adoration—a monastic community of Benedictine women who produce altar breads for Eucharistic celebrations. The congregation also provides quality living areas for the elderly sisters.

When: Saturday, February 6th
Where: St. Felicitas Church
Time: 10:30 a.m.

All seniors and those seriously ill or anticipating surgery are invited to attend this Anointing Mass.

BLESSING OF CANDLES
On Sunday, Feb. 7th, we will have the “Blessing of Candles” at the 10:30 a.m. Mass. You may make a donation of $5.00 and take a candle from the box and place it into the basket. These candles will be burned throughout the year during Mass. On that day, you may also bring your own candles to be blessed for your use at home.

Please bring your blessed palms to the Parish Office or the Church Vestibule. They will be burned and the ashes used for distribution on Ash Wednesday, February 10th, 2016. Thank you very much.

Jubilee Year of Mercy
January 31, 2016

Third Sunday in Ordinary Time
(This should have been in last week).

When he announced this Jubilee Year of Mercy, Pope Francis highlighted today’s Gospel episode, in which Jesus proclaims in his hometown synagogue his Spirit-anointed mission to fulfill the promises of the prophet Isaiah. Jesus’ mission then, says Pope Francis, is our mission now as Jesus’ disciples this Jubilee Year of Mercy: to bring glad tidings to the poor, liberty to captives, recovery of sight to the blind, freedom to the oppressed, and to proclaim a year acceptable to the Lord, a year of God’s mercy. Pope Francis challenges us to translate Jesus’ mission to contemporary needs: to console by word and deed those materially or spiritually poor, to liberate those bound by modern society’s new forms of slavery, to open the eyes of those blinded by their own self-interest, and to restore human dignity to all those from whom it has been stolen. To act with mercy in a spirit of joy!

The St. Felicitas Book Club meets on the second Monday of the month in the St. Mary’s Center from 10:00 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. or so (depending on how deeply involved we are in our discussion). We read a wide variety of books, mostly novels, biographies, thrillers, historical, westerns or classics. Choices are based on our own recommendations and availability. The books are usually available at the local libraries or are inexpensive paper backs. We all have input in choosing the next month’s selection. We welcome new members and our meetings are announced in the Parish Bulletin Events for the Week. Please feel free to just drop in at St. Mary’s Center or call Mary Harmeyer for further information at 351-41129.
