Punctuality pays!

Alicia Smith (AliciaSmith.com) says punctuality says a lot about you.

You care. Showing up and on time is one of the best ways to show someone that you care about them.

You respect others. Arriving on time shows that you respect others. Respect is the foundation for creating great long-term relationships.

You are professional. Being on time is a fundamental tool for anyone who wants to be perceived as being the very best.

You are confident. When you show up on time, it’s a sign that you are confident to take on whatever might lay before you. Tardiness can imply that you aren’t confident, or that you are hesitating to deal with a person or situation.

You are open to others. Punctuality says, “I’m ready” -- to be involved with whatever is set before you. People who aren’t ready often show up late or not at all.

You have an edge. Being punctual gives you an edge in business. The early bird truly does get the worm. Timing is everything. Being punctual is great; being early is even better!

You’re in control. People choose to do business with those they like, know, and trust. They like doing business with people who are in control. If you always arrive early or on time, you give the impression that you are in control and manage things well.

You have a standard for excellence. Punctuality is but one standard of excellence. It implies that you are in control of your life and shows that you respect yourself and others.

You keep things in flow. Other people are affected by what you do and don’t do. If you don’t show up or deliver as promised, you adversely affect others. By showing up on time, you allow other people to get things done on time as well. Everybody wins.

Your habits are your brand. Brands take time to build. When you become known as someone who is punctual, you will enhance your brand. The common sense point here -- be punctual. You’ll enhance your brand and create a positive personal impact.

What they say:

"Strict punctuality is perhaps the cheapest virtue which can give force to an otherwise utterly insignificant character." - John F. Boyes

"If I have made an appointment with you, I owe you punctuality, I have no right to throw away your time, if I do my own." - Richard Cecil

"Know the true value of time; snatch, seize, and enjoy every moment of it. No idleness, no delay, no procrastination; never put off till tomorrow what you can do today." - Lord Chesterfield

Do I make punctuality a priority in my attendance in Church? It is wonderful to be in Church early, handover all my worries and tensions to the Lord and participated in the Holy Eucharist relaxed and joyful.

What is a Baobab?

Baobab is a gigantic tree found in Africa that creates its own ecosystem by providing basic life needs like leaves, nectar, fruit, and bark for many different creatures. The baobab tree serves as a meeting place for many people to gather, discuss, and share stories.

Baobab Blast is an open invitation to be a part of God’s Great Get-Together. Children will have the opportunity to hear the word, be amazed at God’s wildlife creations, and be part of a supportive community.

We will be taking registrations after all the Masses on Sunday June 13th and June 20th, or you may come by the Religious Education office or St. Joseph Center to pick up the necessary forms. There will not be a registration fee until after June 30, so be sure to get your children registered soon! ~ If you should have any questions, please call Sandi at 483-4880.

Potluck for Lectors and Eucharistic Ministers

All Lectors and Eucharistic Ministers, who serve both during the week and on weekends, are invited to join in a ‘potluck’ on Thursday, June 17, 2010 at 6:30 P.M. in Church for prayer, followed by the potluck in the gym.

This potluck is a good opportunity for us to share our ministry experience with each other and more importantly, to get to know each other. Your presence will be a source of support to other ministers and help all to be more rooted in God. You will be helping to build up the church of Christ in our parish community.

Bring your favorite dish. If you wish, also bring your recipe to share.

If you have any question or concern, please call Sr. Magdalena Duong at 347-1287 or Sheila Bickerton at 351-8205, or Debi Parker at 483-4865.

ST. FELICITAS SCHOOL
This week is our graduation week. We are so proud of our 8th Graders who have been faith-filled leaders throughout the school year. On Tuesday, representatives from the eighth grade class will battle faculty and staff members in a Staff vs. Students kickball game. All are invited to witness this historic competition pitting youth against wisdom. The game will be played before the entire student body at 2:00 PM. Later in the evening, we will have our annual Eighth Grade/Kindergarten Buddy Barbeque. The farewell Dinner Dance is scheduled for Thursday night and graduation week comes to a close Friday at 9:00 AM when we will celebrate the Baccalaureate Mass, our final school liturgy. Later in the evening the eighth graders will graduate in the church at 7:00 PM.

The week will no doubt be filled with great joy and endless blessings as the eighth graders transition into a new and exciting time in their lives. Please hold them in prayer.

We thank you for your continued support of our school community and wish you blessings this Memorial Day weekend.

Peace and God Bless,
Mr. Pierre-Antoine

YOUTH MINISTER

ALABANZAS AL CREADOR
La primera lectura, tomada de Proverbios, es una hermosa doxología de la gloria de Cristo, quien existe desde antes de toda la creación. Cristo es la Sabiduría de Dios de la que se habla en el versículo: “establecida desde la eternidad, desde el principio, antes de que la tierra existiera” (Proverbios 8: 23). Cristo es descrito en términos de pre-existencia, de conocimiento y sabiduría de Dios, como el Hijo de Dios en quien el Creador se deleita, jugando con la tierra y deleitando a la raza humana. El Salmo 8 continúa este himno de alabanza al Creador, enumerando todas las maravillas de la creación, y admirando la maravillosa verdad de que Dios ha puesto a la humanidad por delante de todo, haciéndonos un poco menos que los ángeles, “coronados de gloria y honor” (Salmo 8:6).

SAN CARLOS LWANGA Y COMPAÑEROS
3 de junio
También son conocidos como los mártires de Uganda, África Central, que había recibido a los “padres blancos” (misioneros), pero que después, por órdenes del rey Mwanga fueron expulsados. Al darse cuenta de que algunos de sus cortesanos “eran gente que rezaba”, los llamó a todos y les pidió que se hicieran a un lado “los que rezan” es decir, quienes eran cristianos. Les preguntó “si rezaban” y respondieron: “Sí, señor mío, hasta la muerte”, la noche anterior habían pasado en oración y Carlos Lwanga, catequista, estaba con ellos. Pero eso estaba prohibido pues era un desafío a la religión del rey, por tal motivo ordenó que los llevaran a Namugongo en donde algunos de ellos fueron decapitados y otros atados y echados al fuego. Este grupo de mártires estaba compuesto por niños y jóvenes. El testimonio heroico de su sufrimiento dio un fuerte impulso al cristianismo, de tal suerte que cuando los misioneros regresaron, ya había casi mil catecúmenos esperándolos para ser bautizados. Fueron martirizados en 1886 y canonizados en 1964 por el Papa Pablo VI.
