All Saints
November 1, 2015
See what love
the Father has bestowed on us that we may be called the children of God.
— 1 John 3:1

Reflecting on God’s Word

Some people want the Beatitudes to be Jesus’ new commandments; others, an eight-step program for dealing with our addiction to this world; and still others, just one more grocery list of what we should be stocking up on for a long winter’s journey to the Kingdom. The Beatitudes are also, however, the face of Jesus in its boldest and most daring profile. Every time we catch a glimpse of them in ourselves, it’s like looking in the mirror and seeing what we someday will be. The fact is, as St. John attests, it’s already begun. I keep bumping into them, and so do you.

I think of someone I know who can’t stand division in his home. He is absolutely driven to find healing solutions. He’s a peacemaker from the word go. We all know those who are passionate about the weakest among us. They refuse to keep their mouths shut, even at the cost of losing other folks’ acceptance. They can’t seem to help it. Some seem able to forgive without a second thought. Others honestly and deeply hunger to be holy, not pious or religious but just good. And others seem to enter into people’s pain with great compassion and sensitivity in ways that I don’t. They actually mourn for the world.

And then there are those of us who don’t feel we live many of those Beatitudes very well.
Yet every once in a while something pops up from God knows where, and it’s a bit of divinity in us that we’d never believed could be there. Then we realize that it must be God’s doing because it could never be our own. And if it is God’s doing, then we must be God’s daughters and sons. What else could it mean? It’s like looking in a mirror, and we didn’t even know what we were.

Living God’s Word

Other than Jesus, I’ve never known of anyone who harvested all eight of the Beatitudes with abundance. Most of us find hints of one or two at best. It does seem enough, however, to start transforming us into
All Saints.

WE LONG TO SEE GOD’S FACE

“Lord, this is the people that longs to see your face.”

This antiphon for today’s responsorial psalm offers the focus for today’s readings. As we on earth celebrate the triumph of all the saints—the ones officially canonized by the Church, and the countless others who have also reached heaven—we add nothing to their glory. But we give ourselves reason to hope. We too long to see the face of God and believe that we can one day be counted among those whose robes, as John tells us in the book of Revelation, are washed “white in the blood of the Lamb.”

The passage from John’s First Letter offers further assurance: we are God’s children who will one day see God. But today’s Gospel pulls us past longing and reassurance into action. Jesus clearly tells us what we must do to be counted among the saints. We must be poor in spirit, hungry for holiness, merciful, single-hearted, and peacemakers! Then we too will see the face of God.

THE PRESENCE OF GOD

In all our thoughts and actions we ought to remember the presence of God, and account all lost in which we think not of God.

Padre Pancho or Pastor Al

“¡Nunca sabía que los sacerdotes también se enfermaban!”

“. . .what do the angels say when God sneezes?”
ANHELAMOS VER EL ROSTRO DE DIOS

“Esta es la raza de los que buscan tu rostro Señor”. Esta antífona para el salmo responsorial de hoy brinda el tono de la lecturas de hoy. Cuando en la tierra celebramos la victoria de todos los santos, de los que están canonizados oficialmente por la Iglesia y de los sinnúmero que también han llegado al cielo, no sumamos nada a su gloria. Sino que recibimos un motivo más para tener esperanzas. Nosotros, también, anhelamos ver el rostro de Dios y creemos que un día podremos estar entre aquellos cuyas túnicas, como nos dice Juan en el libro del Apocalipsis, han sido lavadas y blanqueadas “con la sangre del Cordero”.

El pasaje de la primera carta del apóstol San Juan nos garantiza que somos hijos de Dios y un día veremos a Dios tal cual es. Pero el Evangelio de hoy nos hace pasar del anhelo y la certeza a la acción. Jesús nos dice claramente qué debemos hacer para estar entre los santos. Debemos ser pobres de espíritu, misericordiosos, limpios de corazón, tener hambre y sed de justicia y trabajar por la paz. Entonces, nosotros también veremos el rostro de Dios.

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

En el Evangelio de san Mateo se encuentra el sermón más largo de Jesucristo. Abarca tres capítulos y contiene una serie de instrucciones para quienes desean ser sus discípulos. El famoso Sermón de la Montaña, es para Jesús y los cristianos lo que los Diez Mandamientos son para Moisés y los judíos. Jesús proclama la nueva Ley. La Ley de Israel se sintetiza en los Diez Mandamientos, mientras que la ley cristiana se resume en ocho bienaventuranzas.

Estas bienaventuranzas son algo extrañas ya que unen cosas completamente opuestas a la felicidad, y las beatifica. Es decir, son cosas aparentemente contradictorias: “Dichosos los que lloran”; “felices los pobres”; “bendito tú cuando te calumnien por causa mía”. Jesús toma lo que la sociedad maldice y lo convierte en camino de bendición, porque nuestros caminos y pensamientos no son los de Dios. Dios ve mucho más de lo que podemos ver o imaginar. Por eso las bienaventuranzas son ocho y no diez, porque más que una ley para cumplir, las bienaventuranzas son la esperanza de un nuevo día. Son la promesa de un nuevo inicio para la humanidad, gracias a Dios.

Podemos abrigar la fe y la esperanza de que nuestros seres queridos descansan en la paz del Señor, y que ellos son felices eternamente en el Reino de Dios.

Durante todo el mes de Noviembre estaremos orando por nuestros fieles difuntos. Dedicados a ellos, tendremos un altar en el templo. Si usted desea puede traer a la oficina de la parroquia, una fotografía con el nombre del difunto y esta será colocada en un conmemorativo altar.

La fiesta del “Día de los Difuntos” también nos acerca a los seres amados que han partido, dejándonos bellos ejemplos de fe y amor. Los visitamos en los cementerios y adoramos lindos altares con los objetos, comidas o fotografías que más nos los recuerdan. Un abrazo fraternal para todos en esta conmemorativa ocasión en que oramos por todos los difuntos. Mercey Zamora
