The prayer of the lowly pierces the clouds; it does not rest until it reaches its goal, nor will it withdraw till the Most High responds.

The Faithful Departed

On November 2\textsuperscript{nd}, we celebrate the Feast of All Souls. Our faithful departed are a part of the Communion of Saints, that is, that great company of those who have gone before us, who are still alive, who watch over us and wait for us on high. We are one with them through grace, though our being joined to the Risen Christ. We all possess the Holy Spirit of God within and we are all called to final glory.

Often we don’t do very well in dealing with death. It is such a traumatic experience in our lives and in the lives of those whom we love. Yet, in our faith, we know that this life is not all that there is. The oldest and wisest of us will not be here below forever. We are all called to a higher place, a fuller life, a richer inheritance.

And it is this faith that allows us, in the midst of our loss and grief, to continue to live in hope. We are gifted with life forever, not just for a time. We are called to be together again.

So, we fervently pray for the full entrance into this heavenly life of those who have gone before us. And in a special way we pray for them on All Souls Day and throughout the month of November.

We encourage you to give us the names of your deceased relatives and friends that we may hold them up to God and His mercy all during this month. No donation is required or is necessary in order to obtain these prayers. Just put the all souls envelopes or a list in any parish collection basket or drop it off at our Parish Office and know that these loved ones will be a part of our community prayer each day during November.

There is not a great deal of distance between the Feast of All Souls Nov. 2\textsuperscript{nd}, and the Feast of All Saints (Nov. 1\textsuperscript{st}). They celebrate the same Christian family members at different stages of their journey. We rejoice with them all and give thanks. What they are, we, with God’s help, will all one day be, the faithful departed.

Our various committees and ministries have done an excellent job in the past years. At this time we are welcoming new members to Parish Pastoral Council and to Facilities Committees. Those who feel called to be part of these ministries/councils please contact the parish office.

ST. FELICITAS SCHOOL

Thank you for your cooperation and patience during last Wednesday’s evacuation drill. We were able to test our emergency release procedures, recognizing what worked well and also noting ways in which the process can be changed and improved as we strive to ensure the safety of every child at St. Felicitas Catholic School.

All are invited to celebrate All Saints Day with our school and parish community at the 10:30 am mass on Sunday, October 31st. We are encouraging students to come to mass dressed in a saint costume. The costumes serve to honor and remember the lives of the saints while reminding us that we are all called, again and again, to walk in the light of Christ. We are saints in the making because we love God and serve one another.

Thank you for your continued support of our school community and we wish you blessings on your weekend.

Peace and God Bless,
Mr. Pierre-Antoine

When the Saints Come Marching In

Each year, as the month of October ends with All Hallow’s Eve (Halloween) Catholic communities begin the celebration of All Saints Day. This holy day, November 1, commemorates all the saints, especially those without any specified feast day of their own.

At the 10:30 a.m. Mass on Sunday, October 31st, the children of our parish are invited to dress as their patron saints, the saint whose name they bear or a saint special to them, process into the church as our cantor leads us in “When the Saints Go Marching In.” The children will then sit with their families.

October is an excellent time for families to prepare for the celebration of All Saints: to share stories, to learn about the saints, and to look at the gift God gave us through the example of these faithful followers of Jesus.

Within the tradition of the Catholic Church there is a practice of choosing saint’s names for children at baptism and again at confirmation. We also have a long tradition of choosing special saints as patrons and protectors throughout our lives.

Please encourage your child/ren to participate in this special Mass. This will be a good opportunity to help you and your children explore some favorite saints, their lives, and the example they bring to us. If you would like to know more about your patron, you may come into the Religious Education office and look at some books on the saints.

Last year this Mass was such a success with the children of the parish that we are again encouraging you to bring your family to this Mass. If you should need help in creating a costume for your child, please contact me. This is a good opportunity for your child to become involved.

If you should have any questions, please contact Sandi at 483-4880.

PARA PERSEVERANTES

Hay un ligero pero muy real cambio en el enfoque bíblico en las cuatro últimas semanas del año litúrgico. Por muchas semanas hemos venido escuchando sobre lo que significa ser un discípulo fiel. Ahora nos enfocaremos en el premio que aguarda a los que perseveran en el largo camino de la fe. Este domingo escuchamos que la justicia será imparcial en el tribunal del juez eterno.

Primero, Eclesiástico nos enseña que "el Señor es un juez... escucha las súplicas de los oprimidos" y a "quien sirve a Dios con todo su corazón" (Eclesiástico 35:12, 13, 16). Luego oímos que Pablo hace eco a lo que proclama el salmista cuando el justo "grita, el Señor lo escucha... salva a los abatidos" (Salmo 34:18, 19). Finalmente, la parábola del fariseo y el cobrador de impuestos que fueron al templo a rezar afirman que Dios exaltará al que clama por misericordia.
