RCIA - Sessions starting soon

If you or someone you know has thought about learning more about the Catholic Church, now is the time!

♦ Perhaps you’ve been coming to Mass for awhile, but are not Catholic.

♦ Perhaps you have a friend who asks questions about your religion.

♦ Perhaps you were baptized a Catholic but have never been confirmed or received Eucharist.

If so, we invite those interested to look deeper into the Catholic faith. St. Felicita will begin a series of meetings to share with others the truths of what it means to be a Catholic. The process is described as a faith journey and is known as the RCIA—the Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults. A new session will begin in September.

Initial meetings will give us a chance to meet you, to answer questions and to give you an overview of the RCIA process e.g. class schedule, dates, topics, etc. Please call the Parish office at 510-351-5244 for further information.

A PATRIOTIC MASS

on September 7, 2019 - 4:30 pm

Honoring First Responders, Veterans and current members of the Armed Services

The Catholic Daughters have had a long history of patriotism and supporting our servicemen and women. The CDA Courts of the Oakland Diocese wish to recognize the efforts and patriotism of those who protect us at home and abroad. As a parish community, we invite you to participate as we pray for their continued safety and also to remember 9/11.

To have a patriot’s name added for recognition, and to indicate the number of people who will be attending the reception in the gym, please leave a message at (510) 357-6886 for Laura Vacca by September 1, 2019.

El Ministerio Catequético Bilingüe de nuestra parroquia, está integrado por catequistas que poseen gran espíritu evangelizador. Les caracteriza la docilidad al Espíritu del Señor que emana de una gran fe y de la práctica de los sacramentos, alimentados por la sagrada Eucaristía y por la Palabra de Dios, y que a su vez los impulsa a vivir una fe en acción Cristiana que contribuye a edificar el Reino de Dios.

Los domingos 18 y 25 de este mes, después de misa estaremos repartiendo las formas de inscripción. Una vez provista la información requerida, usted puede regresar la aplicación en la oficina parroquial, los días Martes y Jueves, hasta el 29 de Agosto.
